UNDERSTANDING YOUR SCORE

Topic	Comment
Membership	30 or more – You are going very well 23 to 29 – Review your plans and check you are following your plans 0 to 22 – You need to review your current process and consider implementation of Two Up! or Club In A Club and look at assessing why members are not remaining in the club and your age profile.
Marketing & Public Image	31 or more – You are going very well 24 to 30 – Review your plans and check you are following them. 0 to 23 – Review your Bulletin style and content and then diversify the distribution; seek training on writing Press Releases; ask the District Marketing / Public Image Chair or Committee to speak at your club; ask for the topic to be included in District Assembly, etc.
Balance In Club	9 Or 10 – You are going very well 6 to 8 – Review your overall service projects and timing to see if too clustered and aim to spread out if possible. Look at your club composition to see if your projects are when members are around. 0 to 5 – Review and assess honestly your service profile to aim for a balanced service in each area – and identify when your members are best able to undertake projects. Avoid heavy clustering at key times of the year.
Leadership & Delegation	22 to 25 – You are going very well 19 to 21 – Review your club leadership development and committee rotation structures to ensure effective training is occurring. 0 to 18 – Strongly consider implementing the Club Leadership Plan if you haven't already; implement a process where your members are rotated regularly onto committees, commencing with their key area of interest & skill. Encourage actively in your club attendance at District activities and recommend those members who show an interest in District Committees to the Incoming District Governor for inclusion in the future.
Club Speakers & Weekly Program	36 to 39 You are going very well. 28 to 35 Review your approach to your Weekly Meetings and double check each of the aspects. It is going along, but there may be some areas which need fine tuning. 0 to 27 Review your approach – Agendas to ensure meetings are not too lengthy, ensure they both start & finish on time, speakers are organized around 2 months in advance & members are

	advised through Bulletin; Chairs, Greeters, Desk Duties are clearly set out and members know in advance of their responsibility. Encourage Visits off site from your meetings and set down parameters & guidelines for your Speaker Program to ensure diversity. Establish seating approaches to avoid cliques.
Fund Raising	8 to 10 You are going very well 6 to 7 Review your approach and check all is in place. 0 to 5 Recommend a review of your current core fund raising activities and do a brainstorm in your club to gain new ideas (Remember – all ideas are great ideas!). Consider grants training, so you can source grants for some of your projects.
Venue	12 to 13 You are going well 8 to 11 Review your venue suitability on at least an annual basis. 0 to 7 Invite your club for their input to the suitability of your venue, food, etc. Invite suggestions on alternatives – it is important to have a stable `home` for your club, but it must be able to meet your needs for service, ambience, reliability, etc.
Social Activities	16 to 18 You are going well 9 to 15 Review your range of activities and that they are relevant to not only the majority of your members, but your newer members. 0 to 8 Take stock of what you do – increase if not many activities and invite members to organize activities and include family members in them.
Planning	23 to 25 You are going well 13 to 22 Review your plans and identify those aspects that you currently don't do – and consider their implementation. 0 to 12 Recommend implementation of a Club Planning Day, the Club Leadership Plan – have a speaker on this to the club and the Board; have regular club assemblies and discuss key issues and seriously review establishing a Strategic Plan for your club over the longer term.
Board Meetings	13 to 15 You are going well 9 to 12 Review – ensure you have clear agendas, reports from Directors; timelines on topics and you have clear direction. 0 to 8 Establish a schedule for your Board Meetings, separate from club Meeting Times / Days if necessary, be clear on the requirements – reports from Directors and the role of the Board. Set a Clear Agenda with times for respective reports. Provide guidance to Secretary on record keeping of minutes, resolutions, etc. Ask Assistant Governor

	/ District Governor for guidance.
Finances	19 to 22 You are going well 15 to 18 Review your accounts and reporting – ensure it is timely. Review the opportunities for electronic transactions, etc. 0 to 14 Review the suitability of your bank account structure; reporting to the board, budgeting to be sure it is proactive and reported against. One of the key signs is that you will remit your payments to RI late, etc. – ensure you raise your invoices in a timely manner – which will result in payments being made earlier. Review the options for electronic banking and credit card facilities for your club.
Service Activities	13 o 14 You are going well 9 to 12 Review to ensure you are making the most of the opportunities to link with your community partners. 0 to 8 Review your service activities to assess the range and if they are really serving your community – or just simply continuing on `because we always do them'. Ask yourself who you can link with –other members of your community and other Rotary Clubs. Being proactive will be positive.
